

4Winds Fellowships

Matthew 24:29-31

4Winds Newsletter: 001

December 5, 2017

Dear Friends,

As of January 1, 2018, I will officially be “retired” and no longer be a pastor or directly involved in the leadership of Oasis Christian Church in Tampa. Steven Noseworthy is taking my place there as head pastor. Instead, I will be devoting my “retirement” to full-time ministry work with the newly created “4Winds Fellowships” ministry. In practice, my work has been mostly with the online ministry for the last 3 years. Steven has already assumed most of the teaching responsibilities at Oasis, which recently moved to a Sabbath home assembly model. We are now restructuring to make official what the ministry has evolved into over the last few years. My relationship with Oasis and its members will continue, visiting as a guest speaker and continuing to offer advice to Steven when requested. Oasis will simply be one of the home assemblies affiliated with 4Winds Fellowships.

The new www.4windsfellowships.net website is being built with up-to-date web technology to be more user-friendly for touch-screen devices. Additionally, I am migrating teaching materials from the old Oasis site, my Answers in Revelation site (both of which will eventually be taken down), and updating and including many articles that I wrote several years ago for the PFRS website. I am trying to consolidate my teaching from the last twenty years in one place for easy access, catalogued by topics. A new discussion forum is available for direct interaction. The Bereans Bible Institute will continue as part of 4Winds. Completion of the Last Generation Version of the New Testament will be one of my priorities. As most of you know, I love to teach God’s Word both in person and in writing, and I do not plan to slow down now. I want to provide as much free teaching material as I possibly can to assist end-time home assemblies to successfully navigate the difficult days ahead.

Please continue to keep this ministry and the home fellowships in your prayers.

In Christian Love,

Tim Warner
